For The Record

For The Record is a weekly feature combining interviews with "big name acts" and some of their music. As for now, the show's air time is a bit uncertain, but it looks like For The Record will find a home on Fridays at 6:30 p.m., following the 6 p.m. edition of KTSB News and Sports . In the past, the show has hosted interviews with Timbuk 3, Brave Combo, James McMurtry, The The, and many more are being prepared to air, including the Dead Milkmen, Dash Rip Rock and the Indigo Girls.

For The Record is always seeking guests for interviews and would love to hear from musicians who would like to be interviewed. To become a guest artist on For The Record , get in touch with Rob Brakey at 476-LOVE (don't worry, this is a toll-free number).

KTSB also does live on-air interviews (usually in the afternoons), so if youor your band have free time to visit we can make arrangements.

Upcoming KTSB Events

Skate Nigs and Do Dat Friday March 2 at the Cannibal Club

News Department

In addition to alternative music, KTSB is also a radio station where a listener can find university, local and state news and sports. There are five newscasts each day, Monday through Thursday. The casts air at 9am, noon, 6pm, 8pm and 10pm. The 9am and 6pm are extended casts, the rest are regular eight minute programs. On Friday, there are the two extended 9am and 6pm casts, as well as a noon cast. On Tuesday and Thursday every week, the 6pm newscast features the commentary of KTSB's very own, Shane Wilson. In addition, KTSB Sports Spotlight airs at 6:20 each day, updating you on the latest in sports highlights.

KTSB also airs five specialty shows on the weekend:

UT Focus is a one on one talk show featuring a campus personality talking about a local or world issue. This show airs at 6pm every other Sunday.

UT Crossfire is a debate forum featuring campus personalities debating both sides of a controversial local of world issue. This show airs at 6pm every other Sunday.

Nighttalk is a Moyers-esque series of shows thoroughly examining social problems or inequities. This show airs at 6pm every other Saturday.

The Final Cut is a film industry news and review show. It features reviews of debuting movies, news from local and world film fronts, as well as interviews with industry movers and shakers. This show airs evey other Saturday at 6pm.

The Sunday Sports Thing is a review of the weeks sporting trials and tribulations as well as interviews with celebrity athletes. This show airs every Sunday at 6:30pm.

South by Southwest
coming to Austin

South by Southwest is coming to Austin! While over 15,000 people will be crammed on the beaches of South Padre, all of the action will be here! Over 2,000 members of the music and media business will converge in Austin for five days of workshops, trading information, and of course, partying in the very best way they know how! Over a dozen Austin clubs will play host to four nights of showcases from over 250 performers from the U.S. and oversees. You'll be able to catch the hottest new talent, as will as some of your favorite bands in the business as they show themselves off to Austin in the pursuit of fame and fortune.

Without a doubt, however, the best thing about South by Southwest is that KTSB will be there! For the second straight year, Austin's Alternative will be broadcasting live from the convention, right smack dab in all the activity and excitement. We'll be in the BMI booth in the middle of the Hyatt Regency bringing you complete information about everything that's going on. Tune in to 91.7, and you'll hear band interviews, showcase updates, and informative reports on the entire convention. We'll talk with convention leaders, industry executives, band members, as well as some of the most influential figures in the music and media business. Along with this, of course, we'll be continuing to bring you the great music that KTSB is rapidly becoming famous for. These are just a few more reasons to keep it tuned to Austin's Alternative as we prepare you for South by Southwest and one hundred hours that will change your life!

Midnight News: news not meant to air

Once upon a time, KTSB had a show which took a slightly offbeat look at the world around us. The news of the day was presented in a humorous context, transmitting mirth and joy in addition to providing educational value in the form of current events. As one might expect, the program soon collapsed and disappeared into oblivion.

Soon after, another attempt was made to present a show which put the news in a comedic format. This, too, was a tragic failure and collapsed into ignominious defeat.

Now, despite a track record worse than the Denver Broncos and the best opinions of science, it's back. KTSB presents The Midnight News, a weekly attempt to not only rip off Saturday Night Live's Weekend Update, but to do it one better by featuring a group of people who have apparently been given too much free time

WEEKEND HIGHLIGHTS

Be sure to catch KTSB Radioactive Hours every Friday night from 8-10pm at the Cannibal Club. Enjoy drink specials and giveaways while playing pool, air hockey, and having fun. Plus, if you're over 21, there's no cover to get into that night's show!
